

FUDGE

A first International Dance Festival for Young Audiences in Sherbrooke!

The Sursaut Dance Company is happy to announce this major project, the first edition of which will be held in Sherbrooke from September 21st through September 26th 2021! FUDGE will present audacious artistic works hailing from local, national, and international stages.

The festival will propose a variety of indoor and outdoor performances, workshops, and various activities that will rally children and their families together around the theme of dance.

After many years of artistic practice, Sursaut now feels confident to lead this project that has been gradually developing over the past ten years. An idea that seemed farfetched when it first came to mind in 1996 has transformed into a concrete desire to create an event that highlights the specificity of dance for young audiences and gives visibility to this discipline.

FUDGE will be the first contemporary dance festival for young audiences in North America, and as such will be a landmark moment as well as a structuring initiative for dance in Canada. By holding the festival in Sherbrooke, Sursaut is participating in the decentralization of arts and culture and promoting the dynamism of the discipline throughout the country.

Programming will be revealed in the spring of 2021. Stay tuned!

ABOUT THE SURSAUT DANCE COMPANY

In 2020, the Sursaut Dance Company celebrated its 35th anniversary, making it one of the oldest contemporary dance companies still active in Canada. Sursaut was one of the first companies to dedicate itself entirely to creations for young and family audiences, and in this sense is a pioneering figure for the discipline in the country.
